

Ticker's Tips

Dear Friends: This is the week I am supposed to write an ad. for the Howard Jewelry Store.

I borrowed the boss's dictionary and learned a lot of big words but I can't seem to make them fit together.

Finally I asked Howard for a suggestion and he said: "Tell 'em about these Deliah Pearl Necklaces."

That ought to be easy. They're seven different kinds—just like the seven veils—all different color combinations with crystals and precious gems, $5.00 each. And besides he's got them in the window so you can see for yourself and check up on my ad. writing. The first time you are down town.

P. S. I believe I'm going to like this job.

FRIENDS SURPRISE MR. AND MRS. CLARKSON

A number of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarkson last Thursday evening, when they appeared at their new home at 1915 230th street for a housewarming. The 14 members of the surprise party brought a delicious lunch with them.

STAR OFFICERS ARE HOSTESSES AT SURPRISE

The officers for 1928 of the Eastern Star entertained the worthy matron, Mrs. Lillian Shiner, and the worthy patron, Joseph Stone, with a surprise party Saturday evening in the form of a dinner dance at the Surf and Sand Club at Hermosa Beach.

The table was lovely with a centerpiece of pink sweet peas and fern, and long tapering pink candles.

Favors for the ladies were hand-made handkerchiefs, and men's favors were match boxes. Mrs. Shiner was presented with a set of 8 Gorham salad forks, Providence pattern. Mr. Stone was presented with a leather billfold.

The guests danced till a late hour and all enjoyed a pleasant evening. Those not dancing engaged in cards.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. Shiner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boynton, Miss Virginia Watson, Mrs. George Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guyan, Mrs. May McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, Mrs. Jennie Moore, Miss Reva Hodge, Mrs. Mable Taylor.

32 CHILDREN ENJOY PARTY AT HYDE HOME

Mrs. Carl L. Hyde, Mrs. Fred Hansen, and Mrs. Edna K. Russell were the hostesses to the 32 children of Mrs. Russell's B-3 class yesterday afternoon, when they gave a party for them at the home of Mrs. Hyde on Hickory street.

One of the reasons for having the party at the home of Mrs. Hyde was so the children could see and play in Laura May Hyde's famous tree playhouse. It is a complete and modern playhouse, having electric lights and everything, and located up in a tree.

Many cakes were donated by the mothers for the affair.

MUSIC RECITAL AT M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

The choir of the Methodist church under the direction of E. F. Young, will give a recital of instrumental and vocal numbers Sunday night at the regular church hour. Some outstanding soloists will be present.

MOTHERS OF PUPILS HOSTESSES TO TEACHERS

Mother's of the music pupils of Mrs. Ruby Wright were the hostesses at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. O. E. Fossum, given as a compliment to Mrs. Wright, who is to be married the last of this month. The affair was in the nature of a farewell, for she will be abroad for the next two months, returning in September to resume her teaching.

A lovely four course luncheon was served on tables decorated with yellow coropsis.

There were 32 guests present, including the pupils of Mrs. Wright and their mothers.

The guest of honor was presented with a amulet clock. After the luncheon, musical numbers furnished the entertainment.

MRS. H. H. DOLLEY HOSTESS AT TEA

Mrs. H. H. Dolley was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a charming bridge tea, given at her lovely home on Post avenue.

Invited guests were Mesdames Raymond Young, Ellis Harder, Al Harder, Dewey Quigley, B. C. Euxton, Walter Schlick, L. B. Kelsey, Grover C. Whyte, Vera Jones of Long Beach, Orville Ferrall of Beverly Hills and the Misses Virginia Buxton and Betsy Byrne.

Favors at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Orville Ferrall, Mrs. L. B. Kelsey and Mrs. Walter Schlick.

MRS. J. R. JENSEN HOSTESS AT DINNER

Mrs. J. R. Jensen entertained a group of friends with a bridge dinner Monday evening celebrating the birthday of Mr. Jensen.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Worcester, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fix, Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stone and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Jensen introduced a novel way of awarding bridge honors when she announced to her guests that couples should add their scores, the highest total winning the honors. Honors were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Young, and consolation to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fix.

BRIDE-ELECT IS GIVEN SHOWER

Miss Stella Moore, bride-to-be, was the recipient of many lovely gifts when Mrs. J. O. Bishop entertained with a shower for her Monday evening at her home on Carson street.

Fast Baseball in Indoor Circuit

Fast indoor baseball marked the week's play in the Torrance Industrial league. Last Wednesday night the Union Tool Company beat the Shell Oil of Lomita in an extra inning game by a score of 6 to 5. It was the most exciting tilt of the season.

Monday the Pacific Electric beat the Standard Oil in a close game 9 to 8.

Tuesday night the Shell 400's trimmed the Shell of Lomita 10 to 6.
